

Agreement for Dissemination of Presented Works

The proceedings of the first annual Global Perspectives on Central Auditory Processing Disorder Conference will be made available as a download at the American Academy of Audiology website and Neuroaudiology.com. Audio recordings of presentations will also be made available at these sites.

If you would like your abstract, poster/PowerPoint slides, or an audio recording of your presentation included on these sites, please indicate your intention below. All completed agreements should be mailed to the address provided by March 31st, 2012. If a signed agreement is not received your content will not be made available on these sites.

By signing this agreement, you acknowledge the following:

1. During my presentation, I will not engage in any type of promotional marketing or selling of any product or service, and I will not disparage the Academy in any way.
2. Warrant that my presentation is my own original work, that I have the full authority to enter into this Agreement, and that I am the sole copyright holder or that I have obtained all necessary permissions or licenses from any individuals or organizations whose material is included or used in my presentation. I agree to indemnify the Academy for any claims that may be asserted as a result of the violation of these representations and warranties.
3. If indicated below, I grant the American Academy of Audiology all of the necessary rights to record this presentation and to use it in any audio formats, including but not limited to creating synced versions of the presentation.
4. If indicated below, I grant the American Academy of Audiology all of the necessary rights to produce and distribute session presentations/handouts on the above listed websites. You will continue to retain ownership, including copyright rights, in your work. Any copyright of the presentation and materials shall continue to be your property or that of your company. All files will be converted to PDF format in order to prevent changes to the materials.
